MEN'S HATS New White Kid Belts

Sacrificed

Among the greatest sacrifices will be hats. Hats of all kinds are reduced. We don't mean to say that every hat in our stock is reduced, because there are some that have come in within the past two or three weeks that are already marked so closely that no reduction can be made on them. But most of our stock has been cut to the limit. We have divided our hats into four large divisions and they are marked as follows:

The semi-annual meeting of the Pendleton Delphian club was held yesterday afternoon at the city hall and the following officers chosen: President, Mrs. Cohen; vice president, Mrs. Laura D. Nash; secretary, Mrs. Will Moore; revisory board, Mrs. Ben Burroughs, Mrs. George Hartman and Mrs. R. D. Sayres. A program was then carried out in the following order: Paper, "Excavations in Egypt," Mrs. Lyman Rice; "Modern Warfare in Mesopotamia," Mrs. G. M. Rice; "Carthage of Phoenicia," Mrs. Lowell Rogers; discussion, "Which Early Nation has Influenced Civilization Least?"

Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Sam Thompson were hostesses to about 20 Pendleton ladies yesterday afternoon at the Adams home near Adams. The afternoon was spent with bridge. High honors being won by Mrs. Willard Bond. The color scheme was pink and blue.

At St. Joseph's Academy preparations are now underway for the annual commencement program to be given at the Alta theater on Thursday afternoon, June 8, starting at 2:30. The school work for the year is practically closed. A total of 22 pupils received the Palmer diploma in penmanship and the commercial pupils have received certificates from the Gregg shorthand department.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Reets and two sons leave tomorrow for Portland and valley points to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Turner are to leave Sunday for Portland and Willamette valley points. They are going by auto.

Misses Lorene and Merle King left last evening for Weston to participate in a musical program at the high school.

L. Hodgen of Umapine was in yesterday in connection with business at the office of the county school superintendent.

County Superintendent of Schools Young left this morning for Weston to attend the second day of the pioneer picnic.

German Seize 195 Ships.
LONDON, June 2.—One hundred and ninety-five neutral ships, loaded with goods from Scandinavian countries for the United Kingdom, have been captured by the Germans and taken into German ports since October, 1914.

Thomas J. MacNamara, financial secretary of the admiralty, made this announcement in the house of commons today.

Sunday at the Alta.

$750 Given for Slender.
DOYLESTOWN, Pa., May 31.—Miss Clara Fuller, former principal of the Buckingham high school, who alleged that she lost her position through statements of Dr. W. S. Erdman, was awarded a verdict in her slander suit against Dr. Erdman. The arbitrators gave Miss Fuller $750 and placed the costs on Dr. Erdman. Miss Fuller charged Dr. Erdman with making statements derogatory to her before residents of Buckingham township. This, she alleged, not only belittled her reputation, but materially lessened her earning capacity. Dr. Erdman declares that he will appeal to the Bucks county court and the case will be tried over again in civil court.

Judge in Solomon Role.
CHICAGO, June 1.—Jesse Bryan for the first time saw the baby she claims as her own, when in the arms of Mrs. Anna Doolie Ledgerwood Mat- ters. The little girl was brought into the courtroom on Federal Judge Landis' order, who is to decide which of the two women shall be given the right to call the child her own. On charges of attempting to foist the child on the probate court as heir to the estate of her husband, the late Fred Matters, Mrs. Matters recently was acquitted. The Bryan girl claims the child was taken from her in the Misericordia Hospital, Ottawa, Ont.

Women Urge Set Prices.
WASHINGTON, June 1.—Mrs. Christine Frederick and Mrs. Julian Heath, New York, urged the house commerce committee to approve the Stephens bill legalizing maintenance of resale prices of trademarked and patented goods in interstate commerce. They argued for the bill as a safeguard to women consumers. Mrs. Frederick had a display of products as exhibits—babies' shirts, coffee, butter and other things. She said goods should be branded in such a way that the consumer may know what she is getting instead of buying by mere guess-work.

Munitions Exports Vast.
WASHINGTON, June 2.—Export statistics assembled in the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce indicate that munitions shipments to Europe will pass the $500,000,000 mark before the war has gone two years.

At the end of April, guns and ammunition valued at $288,000,000 had been exported.

Gasoline Craft Missing.
SANTA CRUZ, Cal., June 2.—The gasoline schooner Restless, which left Marshfield, Ore., for San Diego, Cal., recently and which was to have put in here last Saturday to pick up G. S. Smith, its owner, has not arrived and fears were expressed for its safety.

The boat was last sighted May 25, off Point Reyes. Two men are aboard, charging a shipment worth $557,000, and the British steamer Princess Ema, which arrived yesterday, has 9000 bags of seeds for the port.
